

Look what's Happening!

Student Life Upcoming Events

Wednesday, September 16 – 12:30 p.m. – Lower Bucks Campus

“Images of America” - Mr. Joe Szabo, an internationally known editor, publisher, and former political cartoonist both, in Europe and the United States will present his lecture "The Image of America" both internationally and in the United States. Mr. Szabo is currently conducting a world-wide study for a book he is writing about the "The Image of America." He has presented his lecture "The Image of America" both internationally and in the United States.

Thursday, September – 17 - 12:30 p.m. – Gallagher Room, Newtown

“Images of America” - Mr. Joe Szabo, an internationally known editor, publisher, and former political cartoonist both, in Europe and the United States will present his lecture "The Image of America" both internationally and in the United States. Mr. Szabo is currently conducting a world-wide study for a book he is writing about the "The Image of America." He has presented his lecture "The Image of America" both internationally and in the United States.

Friday, September 25 – 7:00 p.m. – Gateway Auditorium, Newtown

World-renowned poet and writer, Nikki Giovanni will discuss "The Balm that is Poetry" and read from her new book "Bicycles". Opening for Ms. Giovanni will be Kim Allen of Sister Sledge (We are Family). Tickets are $5.00 for students

Bucks Live: A Week of Music

Monday, November 9 – 12:30 p.m. – Cafeteria Area, Newtown

Natalie Gelman, Acoustic Rock Singer/Songwriter will perform her unique songs.

Tuesday, November 10 – 12:30 p.m. – Cafeteria Area, Newtown

Anthony Damato and his band, Emancipation Congregation, will rock the house with his unique brand of music of many different backgrounds and styles, including rock, blues, punk and soul.

Wednesday, November 11 – TBA

Thursday, November 12 – TBA

Friday, November 13 – TBA

Tuesday, February 9 – 12:30 p.m. /5:30 p.m. – Gateway Auditorium, Newtown

Shannon Cutts, singer/songwriter and survivor of anorexia and anxiety disorder will share her concert ministry through her presentation “Beauty Undressed”, her own personal story of her struggles to overcome this disease.

More on the back!

Tuesday, February 9 – 12:30 p.m. – Gallagher Room, Newtown

Jo Ann Tufo will portray “The Eternal Wife: Mrs. Abraham Lincoln”, as she reminisces about her life with her husband of 22 years, Abraham Lincoln, the bloody Civil War that tore country and family apart.

Tuesday, February 9 – 12:30 p.m. – Lower Bucks Campus

Trish Chambers will present the history, legends and personal stories that make up the rich heritage connected to the Underground Railroad.

Wednesday, February 10 – 12:30 p.m. – Upper Bucks Campus

Trish Chambers will present the history, legends and personal stories that make up the rich heritage connected to the Underground Railroad.

Thursday, February 18 – 12:30 p.m. TBA and 7:00 p.m. – Gateway Auditorium

Author and filmmaker Byron Motley, son of a Negro League umpire, presents the history, memories and personal stories of the Negro Baseball Leagues from his soon-to-be released documentary.

Tuesday, March 9 – 12:30 p.m. – Gallagher Room, Newtown

This presentation by Trish Chambers discusses the advancement of women into the professions, arts and business, exploring how women took the initiative to drive social change.

Thursday, March 18 – 12:30 p.m. – TBA, Newtown

Screening of film "A Sense of Wonder: An Evening with Rachel Carson" with actress Kaiulani Lee who portrays Rachel Carson in the film. Ms. Lee will answer questions and discuss the extensive research she has done on the life and loves of Rachel Carson. Admission free.

For additional information on any program, contact Natalie Kaye, kayen@bucks.edu or 215-968-8015.