

The Women's Center & BCCC Counseling Services present Shannon Cutts - "Beauty Undressed"

Wednesday, February 27
12-1:30 pm

Library Auditorium, Newtown Campus

In honor of National Eating Disorder Awareness Week, February 25 through March 3, The Women's Center and BCCC Counseling Services present Shannon Cutts, "Beauty Undressed".

Meet Shannon . . . Survivor of a fifteen year battle with anorexia, bulimia, depression and anxiety disorder, Shannon's story is nothing short of miraculous. Shannon is known as a passionate and charismatic advocate of our right to feel good about ourselves, our bodies and our lives. Reaching out to students, youth, parents, educators, healthcare professionals, and communities, Shannon's unique and powerful programs bring personal transformation and life fulfillment into sharp and exciting focus. Since the age of eight, Shannon has been writing and performing her original songs to appreciative audiences. Recently awarded First Place in the Billboard World Song Contest for her song 'Mercy', Shannon continues to seek new and powerful ways in her songwriting and concert ministry to reach out through music to build bridges of hope and encouragement to those who need it.
