Loan Agreement

The following items are on loan for the duration of the exhibition. All borrowed artifacts are covered by The Gallery at Upper Bucks Campus insurance wall to wall. The responsibility of The Gallery at Upper Bucks Campus ends the moment the artifacts are returned to the owner or designated individual. Any insurance claims must be noted upon return of the work and must be filed in writing within one week of that date. Claims will be for the cost of repair unless the work is beyond repair. Total claims must be supported by sales receipts of comparable pieces or a computation of time and materials. Unless permission is declined here, it is understood that these artifacts may be photographed and reproduced for publicity purposes connected with this exhibition, including use on our website and College-administered social networking websites, i.e. Facebook, Instagram, etc. A 25% commission will be taken by the Bucks County Community College Foundation on all works sold.
